

FACT SHEET

Gifts of Publicly-Traded Securities & Mutual Funds

A few years ago, the Federal government eliminated the capital gains tax on gifts of Publicly-Traded Securities and Mutual Funds. If you own stocks or mutual funds that have grown in value, you will face a tax bill when you sell them. By donating them directly to Canadian Feed The Children you can eliminate your tax bill and make a significant gift at the same time. This giving option is attractive if you have appreciated investments and wish to make a donation from savings rather than cash flow.

Why is a gift of publicly-traded securities and mutual funds beneficial?

Simple and Convenient – Shares are easy to transfer. Your broker transfers the shares from your account directly to Canadian Feed The Children's brokerage account. The date of your donation will be the date the shares are received in our brokerage account.

Tax Advantages – By donating your appreciated stock shares or mutual funds directly to Canadian Feed The Children you will receive two kinds of tax savings: a tax credit in the form of a charitable tax receipt and the elimination of the capital gains owed on the disposition of the shares.

Another Tax Advantage – Gifts of Publicly Traded Securities and Mutual Funds can also be given through your Will. This is an excellent way to reduce capital gains taxes upon death, thereby significantly reducing taxes and may increase inheritances to your loved ones.

Reduced Brokerage Fees – Many brokerage houses forego fees for charitable transactions. Ask your broker whether this applies.

Recognition – Your gift can be honoured during your lifetime.

Opportunity – An opportunity for you to make a significant gift to reduce the impact of poverty on children.

How does it work?

Your gift will not qualify for the capital gains tax elimination if your shares are sold and the cash then gifted to a charity. The donation must be made "in-kind" to qualify for the capital gains tax exemption, so the securities must be transferred directly into Canadian Feed The Children's brokerage account. A donation receipt is issued for the fair market value of the security on the date of transfer.

Please Seek Expert Advice: Canadian Feed The Children strongly recommends that you seek professional advice to ensure your financial goals are considered, your tax situation reviewed, and your planned gift is tailored to your circumstances. Guidelines for Transferring Assets

Gifts of Publicly-Traded Securities and Mutual Funds

Brokerage Accounts

The easiest and safest method of transfer exists if your shares are in a brokerage account. Shares may be transferred by instructions from you, the donor, to your broker to transfer the shares directly from your brokerage account into Canadian Feed The Children's brokerage account.

Share Certificates

If you own share certificates, you may donate an endorsed certificate with your signature guaranteed by the bank or your broker, or an unendorsed certificate and a signed stock or bond power of attorney with the signature guaranteed. Certificates may be delivered by courier to Canadian Feed The Children if due precaution is observed, that is, the unendorsed certificates and the stock or bond power of attorney are delivered separately.

Re-registering the share certificates in the name of Canadian Feed The Children is not recommended, as re-registration can take more than two weeks, during which time the value of the shares can change.

Transferring Mutual Funds

To transfer mutual fund shares, the donor must send a letter of instruction to the fund company (e.g. AGF or McKenzie Financial, etc.) You, the donor must sign documents provided by the fund company. A letter of instruction states: "I request that (Name of Mutual Fund) immediately transfer (number) _____ shares from my account # _____ into the name of Canadian Feed The Children. Do not sell or redeem this donation from my account. After Canadian Feed The Children receives confirmation that the shares are in its account, it may authorize the sale of the shares to use to further its mission."

Canadian Feed The Children is pleased to provide you with a Securities Donation Intent Form to complete the transaction. Please contact our Planned Giving office to have this form sent and explained in detail to you.

*Canadian Feed The Children Gift of Securities donation form should accompany your letter of instruction to your financial institution.
